Mailer Boxes

The mailer boxes are the boxes we utilize to mail things. The flaps and wings interlock, making assembly simple and preventing the need for adhesive tape to close. Compared to other varieties of paperboard packaging, the mailer box is stronger and more transport-resistant due to its two side walls. This allows for several uses of it. For packaging, somewhat bigger things, or even a dozen little products, as many subscription boxes do, mailer boxes are an excellent solution.

Rigid Boxes

Unique products need superior packaging solutions like custom-printed rigid boxes. They are friendly to shipping, perfect to fit products inside, and customizable to transform the unboxing experience. Rigid packaging boxes are high-quality durable containers created to provide extra protection to valuable items. They are made of sturdy materials including paperboard, cardboard, and Kraft board which are resistant to bending and scratching. Customized rigid boxes come in different shapes, sizes, designs, and custom elements like a logo to offer a premium look.

Custom rigid boxes are premium solutions that make a lasting impression. Perfect for gifts, special occasions, or adding a touch of luxury to everyday items, our custom rigid packaging comes in various sizes, styles, and finishes to suit your needs.
